Ag Chemical Dealer Update

Clarion Highlander Hotel and Conference Center
2525 North Dodge Street (Highway 1 and I-80, Exit 246), Iowa City, Iowa

Tuesday, December 11, 2018

8:30 AM  Registration opens

9:00 AM  Welcome and cropping season in review
Virgil Schmitt, Extension field agronomist, Iowa State University Extension and Outreach

9:15 AM  Recognizing and dealing with stress in customers
Barbara Dunn-Swanson, Human Sciences Field Specialist, Iowa State University Extension and Outreach

9:30 AM  Fertilizer spreaders: New technology, benefits, and limitations
Ryan Bergman, program coordinator, Agricultural and Biosystems Engineering, Iowa State University
CCA credit: NM 1.0

10:30 AM  Break

10:45 AM  Soybean Gall Midge and other insect updates
Erin Hodgson, associate professor and Extension entomologist, Entomology, Iowa State University
CCA credit: PM 1.0

11:45 AM  Lunch (provided)

12:30 PM  What’s new with corn diseases?
Alison Robertson, professor and extension plant pathologist, Plant Pathology and Microbiology, Iowa State University
CCA credit: PM 1.0

1:30 PM  Weed management for 2019 and beyond
Bob Hartzler, professor and Extension weed scientist, Agronomy, Iowa State University
CCA credit: PM 1.0

2:30 PM  Break

2:45 PM  Iowa commercial pesticide applicator continuing instruction course for categories 1A, 1B, 1C and 10
Rebecca Vittetoe, Extension field agronomist, Iowa State University Extension and Outreach; Josh Michel, Extension field agronomist, Iowa State University; Virgil Schmitt, Extension field agronomist, Iowa State University
Applicators must attend the entire program in addition to this session to receive recertification credit.
CCA credit: PM 1.0

3:45 PM  Program adjourns